MINSTREL IS GREAT SUCCESS

Neat Sum Realized For Red
Cross War Fund Drive—
Well Attended

An old-fashioned black-face minstrel was presented last Monday evening in St. Joseph Auditorium under the sponsorship of the Bay-Waveland Garden Club and the Junior Red Cross Chapter of St. Joseph Academy. The minstrel was given for the benefit of the War Fund Drive of the American Red Cross and was directed in charge of Mrs. Frank Kiefer, President of the Garden Club, and Miss Kathleen Renshaw, Chairman of the S. J. A. Junior Red Cross Chapter, with Sister Frances Xavier and Sister M. Antoinette assisting. As in all minstrel shows, success in a great measure is due to the ability and interest of the inter-locutor and Bay St. Louis was extremely fortunate in having Mr. George Nungesser of New Orleans direct the show and serve as inter-locutor.

The splendid attendance and continued applause of the audience attested to the success of the show from the opening of the curtain with a short tableau introducing the idea of the benefit—the American Red Cross—until the closing with the singing of Dixie, and everyone agreed they had enjoyed one of the best minstrel shows ever presented here.

A handsome sum was realized from the proceeds of the show and given over to the War Fund Drive.

It would be impossible to comment on every number of the show but everyone participating in it performed excellently and deserve credit for their untiring efforts and their great contribution to a great cause.

Music for the parade preceding the show was provided by members of the St. Stanislaus Band and music for the show was provided by members of the Bay High School Band. Pianists for the show were Mrs. Edna Saucier and Miss Blondie Brewer.

WILLIAM J. GALLUP DIED TUESDAY AT HOME OF DAUGHTER

William J. Gallup, husband of the late Theresa Luxich, died on Tuesday afternoon at the home of his daughter, Mrs. T. J. Morel on Leonard avenue.

Mr. Gallup was found dead apparently stricken while working in his Victory garden and a coroner's verdict was rendered alleging death due to natural causes. He was seventy-four years of age and had lived the greater part of his life in Bay St. Louis, where he had been engaged in the plumbing business up until his retirement some years ago.

Surviving the deceased are three children, Mrs. T. J. Morel of Bay St. Louis with whom he resided, Mrs. E. J. Price of New Orleans and Mrs. J. F. Haynes of Panama City, Florida, and a number of grand children.

Funeral services were held on Thursday, April 8th at 10:00 A. M., from the Fahey Funeral Home on Union street and interment in Cedar Rest Cemetery.

The sympathy of The Echo is extended to the bereaved family of the deceased.

Officers' Wives' Club Holds First Meeting

Mrs. H. A. Andrews, president of the Officers' Wives' Club of the U. S. Merchant Marine Cadet Basic School, Henderson Point, said that women today should ration their time as well as their food for the good of the war effort.

At the first official meeting of the Officers' Wives' Club, held in the USO room at Pass Christian last week, Mrs. Andrews, who is the wife of the commanding officer of the Cadet School, said:

"The day has come when we must ration our time in the same manner as our food. Just as business as usual, has been suspended for the duration, 'life as usual' has been suspended. It is our patriotic duty not only to run our homes as we formerly did, but in addition to do more outside of the home. This may be in the form of welfare work of a dozen varieties. Merchant Marine work, Red Cross work—a definite amount of work outside the home is expected of every patriot."

The Officers' Wives' Club has been very active in welfare work connected with the Seaman's Home at Camp Kitterwake, which serves men of the merchant marine recuperating from the effects of enemy action at sea.

Four committees were appointed to arrange for weekly visits and entertainment at Camp Kitterwake. Delegates were chosen to represent the Club at the Am-Mer-Mar Club, women's organization of the Propeller Club of the Port of New Orleans.

In addition to Mrs. Andrews, the following officers began their initial terms of office: Mrs. G. S. Findley, vice-president; Mrs. R. B. May, secretary; and Mrs. S. A. Jennings, secretary.

Miss Sick is the granddaughter of Conrad Sick of this city.

From the Surgical Dressing Department comes the good news that 17,000 surgical dressings have been completed. The people of Bay St. Louis have responded wonderfully for the appeal for workers and between the day and night groups have accomplished quite a job.

One of the very nice gestures accomplished by the local chapter of the American Red Cross under supervision of Mrs. Roger Boh was the transportation of twelve seamen at the Merchant Marine who are convalescing at the home which the U. S. Government has converted the former Camp Kitterwake into to Bay St. Louis in order for them to attend the Minstrel Show given at St. Joseph Auditorium on last Monday evening.

Gex for the War Fund Drive of the American Red Cross, as had been voted upon at a previous meeting.

RED CROSS DRIVE NEAR END

Only Few Hundred Dollars
Short of Goal—Send in Your Contribution If You Have Not Done So

By MISS MAY H. EDWARDS
As publicity chairman of the Red Cross War Fund Drive I salute the gallant men and women who staged the minstrel show on Monday night which netted the fund $233. It seems hardly possible for people to find time to see a show but when a group find time to train and stage a production like that was then the badge of courage is theirs and to them all praise and appreciation.

The score on the board is showing $5000 for the fund. The ball is resting one the seven yard line; it's fourth down and goal to go. So far it has been a great game with plenty of scoring; good sportsmanship has been displayed. The officials have been more than liberal. There is time for one more play; as they go into a huddle the Quarterback calls the signals and it's $700 around right end for the score.

Play it as hard you did at the kick off. Don't lag. Sometimes the final score is the hardest to make to put your best into this play and reach the $5700 score before the whistle blows on April 15.

Some one has said that a born leader is one who guesses the way the people are going and then gets in front. Your chairman, though a born leader, did not do that way. He did not wait to see which way the people were going. He said I'm going after $5700 and I'm going this way come and go with me. And he and his committees have filled the grand stand and the crowd is cheering for the final score. Who is going to lose the ball? Not you. Don't let your leader down. Go all the way with him.

Each day your radio and your daily newspapers bring you messages of what the allied forces are doing and whichever way the news reads the fact remains that the National Red Cross, the American Red Cross and the Hancock County chapter is the channel through which aid to the men at the front passes.

Of course you have heard this before and you will continue to hear it as long as there is war in the land. It is going to be your contribution that is needed to send surgical dressings and other necessities to those fighting to maintain our freedom that will be withheld? Surely not. NOW is the propitious time to reach the goal. Don't wait. Do it NOW!

Remember $3700 of this remains in the treasury of the local chapter so if you fail to do your part then you weaken the local chapter.

Official Proclamation

2ND WAR LOAN CAMPAIGN

As Mayor I ask my fellow citizens to join to the full extent of your financial ability in the Treasury Department's Second War Loan Campaign which opens April 12.

I feel sure that when the final returns are in, our community will stand high among cities and towns of our size and resources in the country for our accomplishments in this great patriotic drive.

The Government is asking the people of this country to lend 13 billion dollars to help prosecute this war. All of us know how vital this money is in our common cause. We have sent our fathers, sons, brothers and friends off to fight. We must provide the money to put the finest weapons and other munitions in their hands so that they can end this war as quickly as possible.

The Second War Loan Campaign is more than a mere transfer of our money to the Government for a period of good interest rates. It is a demonstration of our will to victory and our desire to back up our men on the fighting lines. The Treasury Department has recognized this basic patriotic aspect of the Second War Loan Campaign by offering a series of securities designed for every pocketbook.

There are the familiar War Bonds, tax certificates, and other long term and short term securities. Democracy never has given a finer example of its strength than in this forthcoming Second War Loan appeal. Workingman and business man, professional man and industrialist, housewife and war worker—all may send their dollars off to fight alongside our troops.

If there ever was a time when we should as a community sound a patriotic note in a public undertaking it is in this campaign. And so I ask every one—homes, businesses, factories, stores, schools and public buildings—to display the Flag on April 12.

Let us all take to our hearts the theme of this campaign: "They Give Their Lives, You Lend Your Money."

WAR BOND DRIVE

BEGINNING April 12th, the people of Hancock County have a man-size job cut out for them. The second war loan drive, which is the largest war financing campaign in the world's history, starts on that date and will run for approximately three weeks.

The goal for the nation is Thirteen Billion Dollars. We, in Hancock County, have to raise $137,000. This is a per capita of a little more than $10.00 for each man, woman and child in the county. This issue is before us. Are we going to meet our quota or are we to fall by the wayside?

So far, the people of the county have been very diligent in subscribing to every war effort that has been put forward. The support of the people of the county as a whole is needed, and the drive can only succeed through such action.

The success of this drive will demonstrate to our armed forces, our allies and our enemies what a voluntary and united effort can accomplish on the American home front.

Let's not allow the boys who are overseas feel as the members of the 750th Tank Battalion, Company A, at Ft. Knox, Kentucky, felt recently when they addressed the following letter to workers who had struck in a war industry:

"We feel deeply hurt to think that you would let the boys overseas down. Just what do you think would happen to this country if the boys overseas would sit down, and quit fighting, because they just make $50 a month? We need more fighting equipment. What do you Americans want? More money now and slavery later, or less money and freedom? Just think how some of your sons and brothers over there would feel if they knew how you were selling them out, and that's what you are doing when you stop production."

Many will say that we are called upon for too many drives, and too many subscriptions at this time, but we should stop to analyze the situation, and if we do, we can only reach one decision. Unless this Government has the necessary money to produce the necessary equipment of war, we stand a chance of losing this fight, and if we lose, what good will our money do us? Place every available dollar you have in war bonds. An investment in your country is a good one. We feel certain that the people of Hancock County will respond and that, even though we have what we feel is a tremendous amount to raise, the goal will be reached.

A SERVICE WELL RENDERED

IN a community of the type of ours there is always a field for people to render a service. Particularly was this true within the last few years when many families knew not where the next morsel of bread would come from.

The Board of Supervisors of the county many years ago had the foresight to place in the county a full time health unit. The work of this unit was to prevent disease and a great deal of good was accomplished along this line. However, there was a sad lack of facilities to care for the sick, many of whom were not able to pay for hospitalization, etc.

Some of our leading citizens realizing this, formed a chapter of the King's Daughters and Sons in Bay St. Louis, with the express intention of operating an emergency clinic here. This group, after much effort, finally realized their ambition, and today we have in Bay St. Louis a small hospital which cares for emergency and non-operative cases.

This clinic has been a Godsend to Hancock County. Many are the cases where persons in urgent need of medical attention would probably have died for lack of it, had it not been for the King's Daughters Hospital. Many are the mothers who would have given birth to their children without the attention of a doctor had it not been for this institution. It has served, and is serving, its purpose.

The building is owned, and the hospital is operated by the King's Daughters and Sons, and to Mrs. A. F. Fournier, who has served as President of the King's Daughters and Sons of Bay St. Louis, must be given credit for the accomplishments of this small group of people who banded together several years ago to render a community service.

This splendid lady gave her efforts untiringly. She was personally responsible for raising most of the funds for the purchase of the building. It was through her efforts and those of her co-workers that this institution survived the black days of the depression.

This good woman has retired as President of the King's Daughters and Sons, and it can be truthfully said of her—"Well done thy good and faithful servant." And we hope that she will always be remembered in the prayers of those who received a much needed service through her efforts.

HELP STAMP OUT FALSE RUMORS

IT has been brought to our attention that rumors have been circulated throughout the County, that all persons are frozen on any type of work that they are pursuing. This is a mistaken idea and has caused quite a bit of embarrassment to some of the business houses in Bay St. Louis. Particularly is this true with the local laundries.

The workers in these plants have heard rumors that they would be frozen to their job by a certain date and many are leaving these jobs. This is erroneous. The only workers frozen to their jobs are those directly engaged in defense work.

People should be hesitant about making unfounded statements in these times. Little do we realize how much harm can come from this type of statement. One of the owners of a large laundry has advised us that it is practically impossible for him to secure help, and that this may necessitate the closing down of his business. With the additional amount of work thrown on our local laundries, in taking care of the work for the men in service in our locality, and we are told that during the past month over 12,000 pieces were handled for service men alone. We should realize that unless sufficient help is had these places will be forced to close down or curtail the amount of work they can accept, and if this happens the local people will have to do their own laundry work and many inconveniences will be created.

Tennis Tournament Under Way at St. Stanislaus

With the arrival of Spring and the setting in of pleasant warm weather, tennis again emerges from its hibernation to become the major sport at St. Stanislaus. On Sunday morning, April 4, the long awaited doubles tennis tournament commences. Brother Julian, the tennis coach and manager of all tennis activities for the past few years, has announced that games of the highest calibre will be witnessed. Seeded first and second, respectively, out of a total entry of sixteen teams of doubles were Norman Toups and Jose Perez, and Archie Wood and Frank Thomas. The former combination is considered the strongest and thus far has been chosen as favorites by the popular opinion throughout the campus. Perez's swift play at the net and Toups' steadiness are the two main factors contributing to their operating as an

ST. STANISLAUS BAND INTERESTS HEARERS IN SPRING CONCERT

For the third time this year the St. Stanislaus Band directed by Brother Romuald made a veritable "hit" in presenting the Spring Concert at the St. Joseph Auditorium last Thursday night, April 1. A large crowd was in attendance.

The concert presented was outstanding not only in the manner it was rendered by the musicians but also in the type of musical selections which they played. For those who appreciate the more classical numbers, the Overtures "The Traveler" and "Aurora" were a source of keen delight. For the spirited members of the audience such stirring numbers as "Gloria" and "Invincible" proved most pleasing. In keeping with the spirit of the day several comic and humorous numbers were on the program. One of the novelty numbers which captured the fancy of the audience was "Ragtime Wedding." The best April Fool's joke of the day was played by the Band when the musicians declared a "strike," another novelty under the name of "Comic Tatro." Of course there was the usual patriotic touch to the program. The concert began with the "Pledge of Allegiance" and later on the modern lyric "There's Something About A Soldier" was presented.

Again the public and the students had the pleasure of hearing Mrs. Louis B. Pate perform on the piano. On this occasion she delighted all with her talented interpretation of Beethoven's Eighth Symphony. Mr. William Newburgher, Chief Petty Officer, Director of the Band at Merchant Marine Basic Training School at Henderson Point was the Guest Conductor on the program at the invitation of Brother Romuald. The latter as well as the members of the Band and the audience are very grateful to Mr. Newburgher for making his appearance.

As this is the last in the series of concerts prior to the Band Festival, we wish to take this opportunity of expressing our appreciation to Brother Romuald for all the hard work and effort expended by him in order to make possible these delightful entertainment features.

accurate, effective and very successful unit.

Toups was grammar school champion three years ago while Perez has had considerable experience at the game. These two advantages coupled by their ability to function together should be enough to insure their winning the championship. However, the Wood and Thomas pair are skilled players using excellent tactics in their play; they must not be discounted too much. Other teams have not yet revealed their abilities but there might be a dark horse to upset the old "dope bucket" as usual. Floyd Toups and Bill Killen and Kenneth Wintz, and Douglas Kuylen and Jack Perkins are other strong contenders in the tournament.

The three courts were completely renovated and three sturdy new nets were purchased. With such facilities available the tournament will not suffer because of lack of equipment. However, in order to pay for tennis balls, the only item difficult to buy at present, a small fee of 25 cents per pair has been assessed.

The victors of all the matches of the first round will be determined by single sets. The finals will be played Sunday afternoon, April 11, and the winners must capture three out of five sets. These matches will settle the title of the championship. Besides earning the title of St. Stanislaus Doubles Championship, a handsome award will be presented to the winning team.

From all indications a very successful tournament is foreseen. Enthusiasm is running high. If the good weather continues the play should be ideal and fast.

The New Code

Chapter 318 of the Laws of 1942 provides for the compiling and publishing of a new code of laws for Mississippi, to include the act of 1942 and laws enacted before that time if still in effect and of a permanent nature. The work to be done under the supervision of the Attorney General and shall consist of eight handy volumes, seven volumes of laws and one for the index. The compiling is being done by Judge Geo. H. Etheridge, with such help as he requires. When the volumes are finished the state is to buy from the publishers 1,000 sets at $50 per set, and thereafter the publishers shall sell to the state in lots of fifty or more sets at not more than $40 per set. The job is to be finished and delivered before the next session of the legislature January 1944. At the present time Judge Etheridge is waiting on proof from the publishers.

Comparison of Pens

The Mississippi Penitentiary system is being compared with the systems of states nearby and the study will probably go into several states. The first state to adopt the farming system for convicts was Mississippi and in more than 40 years many other states and some countries in Europe have sent their official committees here to study the Mississippi system as a model to follow. Such irregularities and small abuses as may have arisen in connection with the Mississippi Penitentiary system are due, in the main, to some of the laws, rules and regulations governing the institution and do not condemn the system.

Citizens "Draft" White

News comes from Columbia that Citizens of Marion County have drafted former Gov. White to be a candidate for the legislature from that county. Hugh White served as governor of Mississippi from January 1940 and then returned to his home at Columbia. He will not be the first man to serve in a smaller sphere after occupying high place. Gov. Noel served in the senate after he had been governor and it is said that Thomas Jefferson served as road overseer and James Monroe served for several years as justice of the peace after they had both been president two terms each and had retired to their neighboring farms in the mountains of Virginia. Service is where you can render it.

Welfare Board Helped 33,529

The State Board of Public Welfare held a meeting in the Governor's office Wednesday and re-elected W. P. Bond as Commissioner of the public welfare organization. A report shows that the welfare board helped 33,529 persons in the month of March. Of this number 25,305 persons received old age assistance at the rate of $8.92 each in month of March. In the Confederate soldier class 430 and servants on the list. Others persons received an average for the month of $17.27, this included widows helped, the blind and dependent children. The entire amount spent for aid to others in the month of March through the department of public welfare was $297,858.63.

Mississippi Among First Five

Mississippi was one of the first five states to go over the top in raising Red Cross quota. Mississippi was asked to raise $652,000 and the amount raised is $750,000, being well above the quota assigned to the state.

Tax Collections All Time High

Indications are that when all settlements are in the month of March will be an all-time high month for the collection of state taxes. On the last day of March income tax collections for the year 1942 had reached $2,650,000 as compared with $2,100,000 for the same day last year and the rate last year was substantially higher than it is this year. General fund balance in the state treasury at the close of business on March 31 was $13,954,189.31.

Reeves Power Succeeds Morgan

C. Fred Morgan has resigned as director of the Civil Defense Council in Mississippi and Reeves Power of Red Banks has been named by Gov. Johnson as the successor of Mr. Morgan. Mr. Morgan has entered the race for State Highway commissioner in the southern district.

Riding Around

Friends of Gov. Johnson presented him with a handsome saddle and then found out later that he had no horse to use it on, and so other friends got interested and all joined in and bought him a fine saddle horse and now he is ready to ride. He was about to be left in the attitude of the feller who said: "If I had a saddle I'd ride horeback, if I had a horse." Sen. Jim Eastland and Representative Tom Abernathy have introduced a bill providing that all men and women in the military service of the country be exempt from the payment of federal income tax on their salaries. The Ways and Means Committee of the House has given favorable report to the bill. A news item from Chicago reports the American Journal as saying that approximately ten per cent of the American people were admitted to

THREE BROTHERS IN SERVICE

ARTHUR R. JOHNSTON, JR.

ELDON G. JOHNSTON

NUMA LAWRENCE JOHNSTON

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Johnston of Bay St. Louis have three sons in the service of their country.

Pvt. Arthur R. Johnston, Jr., is a member of Battery B, 195th Coast Artillery and is stationed at Camp Haan, California.

Numa Lawrence Johnston is in the United States Navy and is a member of Co. 7, United States Naval Training Station, San Diego, California.

Eldon G. Johnston is a Seaman Second Class in the United States Coast Guard Reserve and is stationed at Mobile, Alabama.

hospitals for treatment in 1942... Sen. Stewart of Tennessee says he has asked the Truman Investigating committee of the Senate to go fully into the matter of the war department order for the use of rayon instead of cotton in the manufacture of automobile tires. It looks like a "go around" for the South with a big deed kick of the two materials cotton is doubtless the best.

Walter G. Anderson of Booneville, age 70, long time civic and political leader, school teacher and twice circuit clerk, died at his home on the night of March 22nd. For many years he was associated with the Booneville Independent.

Sen. Hill of Alabama is urging the appropriation of federal funds for the public schools in states where it is needed, reservations in the proposed bill exclude federal management of the funds. Judge Will T. McDonald age 82, the greater part of his life a citizen of his native state of Mississippi, but the last few years a citizen of Memphis, died at his home in that city last week. For several years Judge McDonald had been the only surviving member of the Constitutional Convention of 1890. He had served in both houses of the legislature and as circuit judge. Gov. Johnson is giving full co-operation to the movement to increase food production in the state this year. The Ingalls Shipyards at Pascagoula has been awarded the U. S. Maritime Commission's M. the victory fleet flag, and each of the 10,000 employees will be given Maritime merit badges. More loyalty and cooperation with the President during the war crisis and less criticism and bickering will present a much better situation. Get the war over with and then do all the political quarelling you have on your mind.

"FOR ME AND MY GAL"
Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer Super Production Starring
Judy Garland

Judy Garland and clever players of today carry audiences back to the glories of the vaudeville of yesterday, in a vivid romance with the varieties as a glittering background in "For Me and My Gal." The picture serves to introduce to the screen Gene Kelly, New York stage sensation in "Pal Joey," as her latest partner. Miss Garland plays her first adult role and aside from intriguing song and dance appearances has poignant dramatic episodes which she handles compellingly.

The story opens in small time vaudeville in 1915, with Miss Garland as a young singer, Kelly as a clown juggler. They find a song hit, become partners, fall in love, and vow to marry when they achieve that ambition of all vaudevillians. They play the Palace Theater in New York.

Their courtship is amid various vaudeville acts in various theaters. Then the World War starts, and Kelly is called on the eve of their triumph, a Palace engagement. Desperate, he tries to delay the call by injuring his hand; is renounced by Miss Garland, whose brother has been killed in France, and finally redeems himself overseas, by an act of supreme heroism.

The vaudeville sequences bring to new life such famous vaudeville songs as "For Me and My Gal," "Oh You Beautiful Doll," "After You've Gone," "How You Gonna Keep 'Em Down on the Farm?" "Ballin' the Jack," and many others. Martha Eggerth, glamorous star from Europe, making her American screen debut, sings a Strauss medley with a ballet of dancing violinists in an elaborate spectacle. Miss Garland and Kelly figure in some whirlwind dancing and singing numbers.

Other principals are George Murphy, Ben Blue, Lucille Norman, Richard Jume, Keenan Wynn, and Horace McNally. William Daniels embellished the story with beautiful photography and George Stoll handled the musical direction with fidelity to vaudeville in its heyday.

THE WAR

The great push in Africa to oust the Germans and Italians from that continent is now on. It offers encouragement for the first defeat of the Axis powers on land by the allies other than the Russian victories. Two British, one American and one French Army are pushing Axis armies in a squeeze play—the strategy being to prevent a union of the two armies. A casual reading of the press report makes it difficult for the average American to understand what is really going on there. If one could visualize an Axis Army under General Rommel von Armin stationed at New Orleans and another Axis Army under General Arnim stationed at Mobile trying to advance to New Orleans to join von Arnim's Army there for either a strong last stand or a possible evacuation to Cuba in another Dunkirk, a better conclusion of the situation could be realized. With this in mind now picture the British First Army under General Montgomery driving up the coast from about Pensacola to attack Rommel's rear, while an American Army under General Patton was bearing down from the interior near Montgomery, with still another American Army advancing from Jackson toward Gulfport and with the Second British Army advancing toward New Orleans from Shreveport on General von Arnim, and this will present a basis of comprehension and understanding of what is going on over there. If these armies can make sufficient progress they can cut off Rommel's retreat and force him to fight a last stand battle, say somewhere along the coast.

With the superior armed forces which the allies possess in that area, including a superior air force, the chances are good that the Axis armies may either be wiped out or forced to surrender. But, in any event, whether these two armies succeed in uniting or not the Axis power in Africa apparently is doomed. This may take a few weeks or it may take several months. That the casualties are going to be heavy upon both sides is obvious.

America is now getting the first real experience in heavy fighting she has had in this war. The casualty lists within the next few months as reported will make Americans for the first time realize the seriousness, the gravity, and the tragedy of this world war which the other nations have been experiencing for the past three or four years.

THE PACIFIC WAR
The Pacific front is relatively quiet compared with the European theater. Japan apparently is content for

"HITLER'S CHILDREN" A SENSATIONAL FILM THAT PULLS NO PUNCHES

Sunday-Monday-Tuesday at
A. & G. Theater

Presenting a vivid picture of what a Hitler victory would mean to an enslaved world, "Hitler's Children" features Tim Holt, Bonita Granville and Kent Smith in a daring, highly dramatic and thought-provoking epic, the basis of which is an love story, menaced by official frustration and climaxed with a double tragic sacrifice.

The unusual film is based on the sensational best-seller, "Education for Death," by George Ziener, who for ten years headed the American Colony School in Berlin, saw the insidious growth of Nazi teachings among Germany's young people and came to the U. S. to tell what he saw.

Kent Smith portrays Ziener's own school-master part in the picture, with Holt as a young German-American who succumbs to the Nazi beliefs and Miss Granville as Smith's pupil who later becomes his assistant only to be sent to a labor camp because of her German parentage.

Bringing as it does the first authentic revelations of Nazi teaching to the screen "Hitler's Children" shows those teachings for what they are an inhuman program for enslaving the rest of the world under a German yoke for ruthlessly breeding legions of illegitimate babies for killing off all who do not fit into the Nazi scheme of things.

The entire program is fearlessly disclosed in the course of the unusual romance in "Hitler's Children" its grim attributes and menacing reality forming the tapestry against which the spirited action and romance of the plot are carried out.

Featured also are Otto Kruger, as an S. S. Chief and H. B. Warner as a fearless churchman.

The present to solidify and organize the areas which she conquered in the first few months of her blitzkrieg war. After the terrible drubbing which she took at Guadalcanal and in New Guinea she apparently is satisfied to consolidate her gains for the present, awaiting the inevitable attack from Britain and America. But while this is the apparent situation, it is by no means certain that Japan is not even now planning greater and broader strategy for an attack on Australia. But this is not the view of the allied powers. They are still pursuing the strategy laid out at Casablanca, and we are apparently content in preventing further Japanese aggression in the Pacific with sporadic aerial raids on Japanese installations in that area, awaiting the time when we can dispose of Messrs. Hitler and Mussolini.

General MacArthur would like nothing better than having sufficient ships, planes, and other instruments of warfare to press on with his avowed to retake the Philippines, the Dutch East Indies, and other Pacific possessions so ruthlessly wrested from the allied powers in the Jap blitzkrieg. But he is prevented from this by the lack of sufficient materials of warfare. He, too, realizes that with a large portion of our Navy engaged in fighting the submarines in the Atlantic and so much of our shipping required to furnish our African armies it is impossible to press on with the attack on a large scale against the Japs at this time.

THE HOME FRONT
Things on the home front are none too quiet. The House after a week's debate on the Tax Bill suddenly sent it back to the Ways and Means Committee from which it was reported, and that controversial matter is now where it started three months ago. The labor situation after becoming quiescent for a period of several months, threatens to flare up again with the threat of John L. Lewis to call a general strike in the coal industry if the miners are not given a $2.00 per day increase in wages. This means that sooner or later the Administration has got to face a show down with John L. Lewis and other labor leaders. The President and the American people are coming face to face with the test of whether John L. Lewis or the President and the Congress is going to run the country and the war effort.

From where I sit ...
by Joe Marsh

Happened to me yesterday. I'm monkeying with my cart to get started, when a soldier stops alongside. "Need some help?" he asks. And damn if that soldier wasn't young Char Jenkins from Elm Street. You wouldn't know him after six months in the Army. Fifteen pounds heavier—straight and tan and real sure of himself. The Army's done a lot for Charlie—like it has for lots of other fellows.

Now I read how some folks worry about the soldiers havin' a glass of beer occasionally. After seein' Charlie, I don't think there's cause to fret.

Just like Charlie says—"if you can trust us with guns and ships and tanks, I guess you can trust with a glass of beer once in a while."

And I know the beer industry, cooperating with the Army to that beer is sold in good, clean, decent places.

Distinguished Service

There are those who fight a global war and never move from the spot on which they've labored during peace. They fight right on the farm, down in the mines, on transport routes and power systems, in factory and shipyard, at home, in stores and schools.

They use the age old tools. As the farmer blends his skill with wind and rain and sun and soil to grow the old, old crops that are munitions now, so each in his essential sphere of work gives of his knowledge and his strength to win the war.

For many, though they may yearn to use rather than produce the materials and services which are the tools of conflict, there comes no opportunity for quickened pulses as bands march by for them—no break in the sameness of the things they always did—but they carry a flag too!

They who go gladly and energetically about their essential tasks, who in the place they can serve best do so with willingness and selfless purpose, are carrying out a great American tradition. They do not think of themselves as heroes; they would disclaim the name. By every meaning of the words however they are rendering "Distinguished Service."

EVERYBODY EVERY MINUTE 10% OFF U.S. WAR BONDS

In a short time, members of the Block System will make a house-to-house survey in order to determine homes in Bay St. Louis which may wear the flags indicating that they have complied with the requirements of a Victory Home. On these flags the following requirements are listed:

This is a V-Home!

We in this home are fighting. We know this war will be easy to lose and hard to win. We mean to win it. Therefore we solemnly pledge all our energies and all our resources to the fight for freedom and against slavery. We serve notice to all that we are personally carrying the fight to the enemy, in these ways:

I. This home follows the advice and suggestions of its air raid warden.

II. This home conserves food, clothing, transportation, health, and time in order to hasten an unceasing flow of war materials to our men at the front.

III. This home regularly salvages essential materials as requested by the local Salvage Committee.

IV. This home knows the facts can be even more dangerous than rumors. It defies Axis efforts to get bits and pieces of information about troop movements and War Production.

V. This home regularly buys as many War Savings Stamps and Bonds as it can.

We are doing these things because we know we must To Win This War!

When your Block Leader calls on you, will your home be eligible to wear its V-Home flag?
